

STLA TELESEMINARS

STLA Teleseminar programs, presented live by lawyers and experts in their field, allow participants to listen and interact with the speaker as they sit in their office or boardroom. A teleseminar can be thought of as a conference call that has the feel of a private talk-radio program.

Family Law Chambers and Pre-Trials: Are You Ready?

Co-presenters: Justice N.S. Sandomirsky & Paul H. Korpan, Q.C.

Date: Tuesday, December 5th

- working with the judge to settle the case. Are you an impediment to settlement?

About our speakers...

Paul H Korpan, Q.C. has extensive counsel experience in trial and appellate advocacy and in negotiating and concluding complex agreements in all aspects of family law including businesses, professional practices and farms. Mr. Korpan's practice is restricted almost exclusively to family law and related estate litigation involving family related law issues. He has presented numerous papers and lectures in all areas of family law.

Mr. Justice Noel S. Sandomirsky was called to bar in 1968. The primary focus of his practice of law was family law and had extensive advocacy experience in all levels of court in Saskatchewan and the Supreme Court of Canada (Gordon v. Goertz). Justice Sandomirsky was one of the lawyers who initiated the development of collaborative law in Saskatchewan. He was appointed Justice of Court of Queen's Bench October 2003, Family Law Division.
